Date:

Native American homes/shelters - Research Project (mini)

The topic of my research is the:

long house

The most significant characteristic of the long house

is:

they were long and sturdy and provided shelter in harsh weather conditions

One of the most important things I learned about the

long house

was:

A chief and his family sometimes live in a long house because it was big and comfy.

One of the

long houses

strengths was:

It was big and could hold a lot of people and also was very sturdy.

One of the

long houses

weaknesses or limitations was:

It took a long time to build and you could not move it if the deer moved.
