Hello Parents,

Valentine Exchange on Tuesday Feb 14th. This will be a low key exchange/celebration. Little treats with cards is alright...but NUT FREE and let's not create a sugar rush.

Next week we will begin the study of the Iditarod: The Last Great Race. This is an amazing social studies/history study. From the 1925 serum run to save the Alaskan town of Nome to the 1973 remembrance race that has continued to today, the Iditarod is a wonderful mesh of history and stories of heroism. Now the Iditarod race commemorates the historic serum run and ties technology and great sportsmanship to a unique race to observe.

We have several great articles and even a webquest to make the research and history fun! We will spend much of our social studies/history on Iditarod from now until Spring Break.

Next week should be a good full week...and no full moon!

Have a great weekend.
