Hello Parents,

Wow...was this week real or just a frozen nightmare?! I wish I could say this was a productive busy week...but it seems we were barely in school....and that isn't great, but we can't change Indiana weather.

So, much of the plans for this week are going to be continued/completed next week! The weather doesn't look like it will mess things up for at least a little while...so next week will be dive into several assignments that were planned for this week and new ones as well!

For some I was the big bad teacher today...several students had LOTS of assignments to catch up with in ThatQuiz. This has been a growing issue, students not completing their weekly assignments and then never going back to get them done. This is an important part of their report cards/grades...so important that they are not ignored. Remember that they CAN work on these at home.

Next week we kick off some new great items!! I'm excited to share new projects and get back to something normal!!

Have a great three day weekend!! Be safe and make sure you are ready for snow!!
