Hello Parents,

ISTEP done...well, done with applied skills. The next time we'll see ISTEP is well after spring break....mid April.

Next week we tackle IREAD. This will be less intense...but I still need everyone to take it seriously. It can be a real inconvenience.

We will be reading a favorite short story....Stringbeans Trip to the Shinning Sea. This is not so much a story as it is a collection of postcards as the character "Stringbean" and his brother Fred travel from Kansas to the Pacific Ocean in Fred's truck with the camper on the back. This collection of postcards is a timeline story of their adventure. I always enjoy reading this story...especially as a relief from ISTEP and IREAD.

Next week we take IREAD, but also we will wrap up missing assignments and complete projects. This will be an easy going week...they've earned it.

I look forward to the break. I think everyone is looking forward to break. This also marks the end of the grading period. I will be posting the book project results in the classroom. We will push books and reading all week. This will hopefully get EVERYONE caught up....it might also get a few the head start they need for the final grading period.

Rest this weekend. Please no one be ill next week!!
