Hello Parents,

It's been a COLD and WET week!! Yuck!! By this time it's usually warm and we've been practice batting every day...but not this year!

We had May the Fourth and Cinco de Mayo all in the same week...not that unusual. It's been a fun week. We've worked through sound looking at frequency and patterns. Sine wave, square waves, saw-tooth/triangular wave, and a little on sound fft fundamentals..think multiple tones...like the old touch tone phones.

We had some fun times looking at sound and different materials,,,ping pong balls, bean bag chair fill, and water. The finale was cornstarch and water (Oobleck) in a rubber sealed speaker. So...fun stuff with sound this week.

Looking ahead to next week...Monday the students visit Happy Hollow. Monday night is "3rd Grade Parent Night/Music Program". This is your chance to visit and get answers and learn about what to expect for 4th grade. This begins the rapid countdown to the end of 3rd grade. 2.5 weeks and dwindling...It's hard to believe time is slipping away so fast.
