Hello Parents,

Twass four days before Christmas and still in the classroom,
The teacher was attempting to maintain educational passion.
The students were wired and ready to bolt,
The day was dragging and seeing to hold.

The school was bustling and full of glee,
Every student and and teacher were ready to break free.
With Pause with the principal, art and concerts to go,
The third graders were busy and ready to go.

The the day whirled to the end and the teacher was standing at the end hall,
To see all his students make their way to paths, cars and busses and then that was all.
The day concluded and through all of the fuss,
The last bits were finished and a teacher finished with rush.

Merry Christmas to all...Happy holidays to everyone...may your winter break be filled with fun, family, love and rest. January brings new projects, new problem solving, and many many new challenges!!!
