Hello Parents,

We have a BUSY productive week. SO much has happened this week. We said farewell to a classmate who we won't likely see until 4th grade, amazing blankets piling up, goodbyes to Ms. Rosa and Ms. Brown, Minecraft Home projects, and getting ready to welcome back another student that we have missed. It's been a busy a week and a crazy Friday!

We are ready for next week. Getting back to normal we will be working on the evaluation conferences for Minecraft Home projects. This will be a paperwork dream! I sit with each student and we evaluate their plans, their budget, look through the house, evaluate if they met the rubric requirements for their house, then review the slideshow and the rubric for taking pictures and finally look at the rubric for paperwork completion. This will take at least a week...maybe more.

We have completed the first of three tests using the NWEA platform. The first note about the NWEA is that this is not information that the state collects or that we use for anything but to assess and help students. That said, we have finished reading. Next week we work on mathematics and finally language arts. For those traveling...I am working on adjusting timing.

I hope everyone enjoys a restful weekend. We hit the ground running Monday with new projects and even some crafts!!!

Keep pushing the book projects!! <https://mrbrantley.weebly.com/book-projects.html>

Have a great weekend!!
