JANUARY 2019

- 7th - 2nd Semester Begins

Hello Parents,

<http://mrbrantley.weebly.com/news-blog>

One last week...YIKES!!! There's only one week until winter break!!! That just doesn't seem right?!?! I haven't heard of anyone else skipping town early...so I assume I have all but two next week?!

We are diving into a little winter fun this week. Snow flower/star crafts, paper snowflakes, a winter scene creation in MinecraftEDU and more!! We will read about and do a brief study of holidays and festivals of light world-wide as well as enjoy a few classic videos...of course there's a Scooby Doo Holiday video!!

The work will be minimal...focussed primarily on core graded material and anything that students need to complete and get caught up for the semester. I don't want to imply that this week isn't important...in fact the opposite may be the real truth. This is an important time to bring everything to a close and get ready for the break as well as the conclusion of the first semester.

Report cards are coming in January. They will be out shortly after our return. I will be working throughout the break getting everything accounted for and graded so that we start fresh in 2019.

We've had busy weeks that are now behind us, and this week will not be any different. Many things to do, with little time to do them! Please help your student continue the normal bedtimes so that they hopefully make it through the week in decent health. There are colds and stomach bugs around...I'm pushing germ x and washing hands!

THIS IS THE FINAL WEEK!!!
Keep pushing the book projects!! <https://mrbrantley.weebly.com/book-projects.html>

Have a great weekend!!
