Hello Parents,
I would love a calm "normal" week. I don't know what "normal" is...but it sure sounds nice...

This week has been a busy productive week. Experiences this week included a powerful field trip to Purdue to see a show dedicated to the Freedom Riders, a visitor from Lafayette Transitional Housing Center (LTHC) to accept our blankets as a donation, and a wonderful week of stop motion video creation.

Next week I hope resembles something more normal. Although...if the weather predictions are anything close to correct...

Next week we have new great lessons, new projects to start 3D design and printing and new challenges with Stop Motion video creation.

Please make sure to be reading at home. Book projects are just there as the proof of reading. The real goal is enjoying reading. A couple students regularly share their reading and their visible joy about the stories and excitement. This is one of the many things I love about teaching.

Round 3 of the great book projects have started. They are due the Friday before Spring Break! Make sure your student is following the guidelines: <http://mrbrantley.weebly.com/book-projects.html>

Assignments page: <http://mrbrantley.weebly.com/assignments.html>

BOOK PROJECTS:
There are 5 projects due each grading period. That means 5 due by March 9th.
