Hello Parents,

ISTEP is over...well part 1 is done....part 2 will come about in April.

IREAD is next week. For most that will be far less stressful than this week.

Next week we will try to and have some fun in between getting through another test. It won't be bad...just a few sections and not as much time as ISTEP. We are ready to follow racers and dogs across Alaska!! The 2018 Iditarod begins Saturday. <http://iditarod.com/> This will be Iditarod #46. As of today there are 67 participants. Each student was tasked with choosing two musher/teams to follow...this way they should be guaranteed to have at least one finish.

Now...onto the spring break project!! <http://mrbrantley.weebly.com/spring-break-post-cards.html>

This is a fun and engaging project that includes EVERYONE! This is a poster journal of your spring break. If you travel I encourage postcards, brochures, maps...most of these are easy to gather at welcome centers or hotels. If you don't travel you can still have a great poster. A Google map of a trail hike or walk, a state park map, restaurant menus or napkins or snapshots around town are great!! A few of the best posters have been staycation students!! When we get back we will assemble the posters and put them on the bulletin board

Round 3 of the great book projects ARE DUE. They are due the Friday before Spring Break...that's THIS COMING FRIDAY! Make sure your student is following the guidelines:

BOOK PROJECTS:

There are 5 projects due each grading period. That means 5 due by March 9th.
