Hello Parents,

WOW...what a week. Normally this week is crazy and hectic...so I guess all is well. Hectic and crazy been the current flavor this week. Amidst this craziness and hectic madness several of you amazing children have been exceptionally creative!! I introduced them to stop motion film creation. There is a wonderful app for the Chromebooks that makes the process very easy...and surprisingly fun. Please check out some of their work @ <http://mrbrantley.weebly.com/stop-motion-films.html>

These stop motion films have been quite the time consuming and fun activity for the end of the year. I have to say...having worked with older students in film clubs creating stop motion and live action films...this group has them beat...and then some!

We are slowly losing students. Over the last week we have lost three...and by Tuesday we will be down another. It's sad, and I miss them all.

Today sure turned out strange. The water main break was odd, but didn't seem like a show stopper. then the issues appear to have grown, and now we've already dismissed early. Today zipped by...

Next week will be a strange and seemingly crazy series of events. Tuesday I will be here...that will unfortunately be my last day. I will make sure to include all the events and plans for Mrs. French so that the class is involved and participates in everything planned.

There are 2.5 days left...I need to leave accurate information for Mrs. French. PLEASE let me know if your child will not be here through the end of the year.

Have a WONDERFUL weekend!!!
