Hello Parents,

It's REPORT CARD WEEK!!! Report cards are coming out today (Oct. 24th). If for any reason you don't receive your child's report card let me know and I can either reprint or email a copy to you.

Unfortunately the field trip next week has been cancelled. This is largely due to weather and the difficulty in scheduling a makeup date. Temperatures are going to be chilly in the morning, and we'd be outside for the entire trip...so the decision has been made to cancel the fall trip. There will be a Spring Prophetstown trip that will be great!!

We have a FOUR DAY WEEKEND!!! I hope that everyone has at least one fun activity planned...or that could occur this weekend! I know that there are some from our class that will enjoy a vacation, other will enjoy the stay-cation...either way I hope that four days provides some relaxation and rejuvenation to us all.

Next week will be another 4-day week! Yet another attempt to fit 5 days' worth of work and activities into 4 days! It'll be a wonderful whirlwind of a week. I look forward to next week and meeting with students to start setting up the personal reading goals and mapping out grading period from now until December. This will be a great and powerful tool for school and home!

Have a great...relaxing...fantastic four day weekend!!!
